EXT. - PLANET SCIENTOPIA - LUSH GREEN UTOPIAN PLANET

Very serious music. Glide along a futuristic bridge toward a towering pillar of science. A sign reads: "Nanolabs: A better tomorrow...today!"

CALHOUN (O.S.)

They say science'll save us all.

Camera still gliding toward it - the lab explodes flaring out the camera. As it flares back in we see a glimpse of the devastation left behind as robotic bugs swarm out of the building eating anything and anyone in sight. They swarm the camera and fuzzes out.

SPACE - A satellite feeding us this imagery goes dark in FG as behind it, the lush blue and green planet fades to gray and black.

We don't need science.

VASHOOOOOM!!! A Space cruisers rockets into frame smashing through the satellite toward planet-X. Heavy Industrial club rock.

We need a hero.

Aboard the ship, a bad lookin bro-nado pack with guns the size of washing machines. Their leader steps forward, the svelt, ballbustin, Stg. Calhoun. (Madonna/Galactic Swat)

CALHOUN (CONT'D)

We need YOU!

Into her eye past nano-tech to: Bugs devouring a city.

CALHOUN (O.S.) (CONT'D)

A Nano-bug virus is out of control and spreading. It's deadly. So we needs someone even MORE deadly.

Mystery hero blows up city, gets a 'Hero' medal slapped on.

Montage of more bugs, more explosions, and more medals.

They're mean - you gotta be meaner.
They're brutal, you gotta be more brutal..ier?

CALHOUN (O.S.) (CONT'D)
They're out to be bad - YOU gotta be BADDER.

Bugs engulf the planet. Hero nukes the planet. Explodes him into space aboard the ship where a medal's slapped on him.

SLAM ZOOM out of Calhoun's eye -- CALHOUN LEADING PACK INTO BATTLE

CALHOUN (CONT'D)
Are you BAD enough - to be a HERO?

Troops rush a swarm of bugs. As they collide, screen Flares out in a sea of explosions and lasers. Logo/Medal explodes into full frame.

GAME VOICE
